WHEN LIFE'S AT STAKE

The most timid man will take any chance of escape. The slender rope dropped down the precipice, the slippery log over the abyss, anything that offers a chance of life, is eagerly snatched at. The end the man seeks is safety. He cares nothing for the means to that end.

There are thousands of men and women whose lives are at stake, who are hindered from accepting the one means of safety by foolish prejudice.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been the means of restoring health to many men and women whose hollow, bleeding lungs, emaciation and weakness seemed to warrant the statement of local physicians—"There is no cure possible."

Why should prejudice against a put-up medicine hinder you from trying what has cured thousands of suffering men and women?

"Only for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery I think I would be in my grave to-day," writes Mr. Moses Miles, of Billard, Utah Co., Wyoming. "I had asthma so bad I could not sleep at night and was compelled to give up work. It affected my lungs so that I coughed all the time, both day and night. My friends all thought I had consumption. My wife had taken Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and it had helped her so much she insisted on my trying his 'Golden Medical Discovery'—which I did. I have taken four bottles and am now a well man, weighing 175 pounds, thanks to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose.

Don't Worry.

This is easier said than done, yet it may be of some help to consider the matter. If the cause is something over which you have no control it is obvious that worrying will not help the matter in the least. On the other hand, if within your control you have only to act. When you have a cold and fear an attack of pneumonia, buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and use it judiciously and all cause for worry as to the outcome will quickly disappear. There is no danger of pneumonia when it is used. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

For Commonwealth's Attorney,

JOHN SAM OWSLEY, JR.

WHILE we do not take so pessimistic a view of the situation as does "Democrat" in his card in the Danville Advocate, we are fully as desirous of seeing the middle in this judicial district amicably adjusted. Following is "Democrat's" suggestion:

Feeling satisfied, as I suppose we all do, that the present status in this judicial district means sure defeat to the democratic party, I venture as a democrat desiring the success of the party to make this suggestion: That the nominees of both conventions, judges and attorneys, send to the chairman of the district committee, declining to accept the nominations, and requesting the court to order a primary election to be held at the time the State primary is held. This it is thought would come nearer harmonizing the party than any thing named, and insure party success. This is written alone in the interest of the democratic party, and not any candidate or nominee.

DEMOCRAT.

A primary is what Judge Saufley and Commonwealth's Attorney Owsley wanted all along and is what the former gentleman asked for in every speech he made, knowing that it is the best and fairest method of naming candidates. We do not speak by authority from Messrs. Saufley and Owsley, but we believe "Democrat's" plan will meet with their approval and we further believe it to be the best way out of the tangled matter. Let action be taken and taken at once.

ELIJAH, the second, or rather John Alexander Dowle, has a divorce suit on his hands. Mrs. Dowle has filed suit, alleging "cruelty, and inhuman treatment," and asks alimony, which it is generally hoped she will get. Mrs. Dowle was a Mrs. North, a wealthy widow, at the time of her marriage in 1900 to Dowle. She went from her home in Colorado to Chicago in 1900 to investigate Dowleism, and after being there a few weeks married the "prophet," as Dowle styles himself. Whether the union was a happy one can be easily imagined.

THE New Hampshire legislature is about to become a recruiting agent for the Christian Science creed. At least, it is considering a bill to forbid the practice of that system of faith cure in the White Mountain state. Such a measure, if passed, ought to be good for an increase of 50 per cent. in the number of Mrs. Eddy's followers in New Hampshire.

RICHMOND, VA., Negroes passed resolutions concerning the incendiary speech made by James H. Hayes, one of their race, in Washington a week ago. As a general thing the "Old Virginia Negro" knows his place pretty well and has better sense than to give utterance to such a speech as Hayes made, even if he thinks what that individual said.

SINCE Senator "Steve" Elkin has taken the lead in the anti-trust and anti-railroad fight in Congress, the nation should be surprised at nothing, not even at Senator "Ben" Tillman championing the Negro cause, or Senator "Matt" Quay defending the sanctity of the ballot, or Senator "Tom" Platt joining the "Boss Busters."

A TEXAS judge fined and sent to jail an editor who published the testimony in a murder case against the order of the judge but the court of appeals very promptly released him on habeas corpus proceedings, thus vindicating the liberty of the press.

D. O. GROFF has withdrawn from the race for the democratic nomination for Representative in Jessamine. His withdrawal is in the interest of party harmony and means that clever Harry McCarty will win the nomination hands down.

TO-DAY is the third anniversary of the death of Gov. Goebel and none of the skunks who brought about his death have felt the halter draw. Shame on Kentucky.

POLITICAL.

Mack Pythian, of Louisville, has been appointed tipstaff of the court of appeals.

No bill for the location of army camp sites is likely to be passed at this session of Congress.

Rhode Island is the only one of the New England States which has a democratic governor.

Hugh Smith has been appointed postmaster at Halsey, Whitely county, and Leander Bowling at Ionia, Laurel county.

In joint ballot the Washington Legislature elected Levi Ankeney United States Senator to succeed the Hon. George Turner.

On the 61 ballot the democratic caucus of the North Carolina Legislature nominated Lee S. Overman for United States Senator.

It is believed in Washington that the Kentucky republican politicians will endorse Augustus E. Willson for the sixth circuit judgeship.

A bill was passed by the Alabama House of Representatives prohibiting the sale of cigarettes, or cigarette paper in this State by a vote of 61 to 35.

Mr. Foraker defended Mr. Quay in introducing in the Senate the Statehood Bill as an amendment to two of the appropriation bills. He cited precedents for the action.

Senator Wellington, of Maryland, introduced an amendment to the constitution, prohibiting the holding of a fortune exceeding $10,000,000 by any one individual in the United States.

A bill was introduced in the Minnesota Legislature declaring that it shall be unlawful for one person to kiss another unless he can prove he is free from contagious or infectious diseases.

A delegation of Kentucky Congressmen, who yesterday called on President Roosevelt, were informed that the Sixth District Judgeship will go to an Ohio man, if Senators Hanna and Foraker can agree.

M. E. Ingalls, president of the Big Four railroad, says the signs of the times point to democratic ascendancy in 1904. He thinks the Southern States should take a leading part in the next convention, picking a strong man from the North.

The report of the minority members of the House Judiciary Committee on the Anti-trust Bill urges that the President be given power to remove the tariff from trust-made wares, whenever, in his judgment, it is better for the welfare of the people. The repeal of the tariff on necessities controlled by trusts is also urged.

Former Gov. Bradley insists that none of the leaders of the republican party in Kentucky was engaged in the Goebel assassination conspiracy, but he is careful to explain that W. S. Taylor, though the republican machine nominee for governor, "has never been regarded as one of the leaders of the party."—Louisville Times.

The democratic members of the House Subcommittee on Judiciary have presented a minority report on the Anti-trust Bill. A number of amendments are proposed, one of them being a provision for barring from the mails all telephone and telegraph corporations violating the anti-trust laws. Another provides that the watering of stock shall constitute legal grounds for forcing a corporation into bankruptcy.

President Roosevelt sent a message to Congress calling attention to notes from Chinese and Mexican Governments, regarding the monetary relations of the gold and silver using countries. Mexico and China ask the United States to lead the way in formulating an agreement which will keep the fluctuations of silver in reasonable limits, otherwise international trade with the silver-using countries may be ruined.

J. M. Alverson, candidate for the Legislature in Lincoln county, is one of the most deserving young democrats in the State. He has always been an active party worker, and his friends think it is time he was rewarded for his services. Knowing nearly every man in his county and having the good will of most of them, he is a most formidable candidate and predictions are made that he will beat his opponent, Hon. M. F. North, who has served several terms in the Legislature.—Lexington Democrat.

Heavy shipments of arms and ammunition are reported as being made to the interior of China, in violation of the agreement with the allied Powers. The war material is supposed to be for the use of the Reform party, and an attempt to overthrow the Manchurian dynasty and establish a more modern system of government is looked for.

John Brewer Farrow, of Mason county, was beaten and shot by masked robbers and will die.

3 That all known democrats of lawful age, and all democratic youths who will be of lawful age on November 3, 1903, shall be entitled to vote in said primary.

4 That the officers of election shall be appointed by the committee from lists submitted by candidates for said offices and shall be apportioned as nearly equal among the contesting candidates for said offices as well as apportioned among the various candidates for State offices; said lists to be submitted at least 20 days before said primary.

5 It shall be the duty of the officers of election in each precinct in this county at the close of the polls to count the ballots cast in their respective precincts, to preserve all ballots cast and preserve the stubs, to destroy all unused ballots before opening the ballot box at the close of the polls, to preserve all questioned ballots and to transmit same to the county committee on or before the 12th day of May, 1903, the ballots voted, ballot boxes, stubs, questioned ballots and the certificate of the result of the vote in each precinct as is provided by law; to properly string and seal with the election seal all ballots voted, to string and seal all questioned ballots, to put said ballots in the ballot box together with the certificate of the vote, to lock the box, deliver one key of same to the sheriff of the election and the other to one of the judges.

6 It shall be the duty of the sheriff and judge of election, to whom the keys have been delivered, to deliver said ballot box to the secretary of this committee and take his receipt for same.

7 It shall be the duty of the county committee to meet at Stanford on the 12th day of May, 1903, and tabulate the result of the election in the various voting precincts and pass upon all questioned ballots returned to them, and to declare that candidate receiving the highest number of votes cast for the office for which he is a candidate the democratic nominee for that office and to certify the same as is required by law.

8 All democrats desiring to become candidates for said offices before said primary, shall in writing notify the chairman of this committee of such intention and shall deposit with the secretary the amount of his assessment on or before 12 M. April 24, 1903.

The assessment for said offices shall be for each candidate as follows: For representative, $25; for circuit court clerk, $25.

10 Before entering upon the discharge of their duties the officers of election shall be sworn as the law directs, and their duties and responsibilities shall be the same as those of legally appointed and regularly qualified officers of regular county elections.

11 In the event there is a surplus remaining after defraying the expenses of said primary it shall be returned to those by whom it was paid, in the same proportion in which it was paid by them, and if there should be a deficit, then the candidates shall be assessed to supply said deficit.

12 In the event no more than one candidate be announced for any office on or before 12 o'clock M. April 24, 1903, then such candidate shall be declared the nominee of the democratic party for said office and his name shall not go on the ballot at said primary election, but such candidate shall nevertheless pay in his assessment as above provided, for the office for which he may be a candidate, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of this primary, provided, however, if there be no more than one candidate for circuit court clerk and no more than one candidate for representative complies with the conditions herein, then the primary herein provided for shall not be held, and said candidates shall be declared the democratic nominees and their assessment shall then be returned to them less the expenses up to said time.

W. S. BURCH, Chm'n.

W. H. SHANKS, Sec'y.

In addition to the above, the committee on motion, asks the democrats in each precinct to volunteer their services as officers of election and from such volunteers the committee will select officers; such officers are asked to serve without pay during the day of election.

The democrats who will serve as such volunteer officers are asked to give their names to their precinct committeeman or to the chairman or secretary of the committee.

This is a farm of 145 acres, located 5 miles from Stanford. It is within one mile of a postoffice, church, school, store, mill, cheese factory, and near a German settlement. The farm is well preserved and improved and contains a large amount of fine saw timber. The improvements consist of a good frame dwelling house with 5 large rooms, a double walled cellar, and two porches; two barns, one an extra good frame with cattle sheds attached and especially arranged for curing tobacco, the other a log stable and wagon shed combined; also a hennery, a smoke house and corn crib. There is a fine young orchard bearing, a small vineyard and other small fruit. The fencing is of rails and in good repair. The farm is watered with never-failing springs and two cisterns. The owner is a non-resident and offers this farm at a bargain on very easy terms. For further particulars call on or address L. E. Hughes, Sec'y Central Kentucky Real Estate Exchange, Stanford, Lincoln County, Kentucky.

It has the thickest sand thus far found in the Cooper section, about 14 feet, and is of a superior quality. It is on the opposite side of Beaver creek from the J. E. In company with County Attorney Harvey Helm, Squire Wallin went to the home and examined the body but failing to find marks of violence of any kind, no coroner's jury was summoned and the parents were permitted to bury their offspring. A report was also current that Shaefer, in a fit of anger some two years ago, broke his son's leg and had otherwise treated him inhumanly, all of which we hope is untrue.

WHEN the board of supervisors of Pulaski "raised" Mr. F. J. Campbell on his Journal plant, he took it good humoredly and wrote as follows: "We return $250 worth of thanks to the board of supervisors for their high opinion of the value of the Journal printing plant. Being competent judges of such things we naturally defer to them and tip our hat for small favors." This is a gentle hint to some of our good people who are still kicking because of being raised, and is given with the hope that they will emulate Brer Campbell's splendid example.

Thirty Years In The Senate.

On the 4th of March John P. Jones, of Nevada, will have completed five full terms in the United States Senate, and will give way to Francis G. Newlands, who has been chosen to succeed him. This service of 30 years is long, but it has been equaled by several others and excelled by two—John Sherman, of Ohio, and Justin S. Morrill, of Vermont, each of whom served 32 years. Mr. Jones, however, has served longer than any one now in the Senate except Mr. Allison, who entered at the same time, and so is called the father of that body.

The first man to serve as much as 30 years in the Senate was Thomas H. Benton, of Missouri, and he embodied that distinction in a book known as "Thirty Years in the Senate." He was elected in 1820. It is true that William Rufus King, of Alabama, is credited with 30 years' service and was elected in 1819. But he was minister to France from 1844 to 1846 and did not reappear in the Senate till 1848, when he was chosen to fill a vacancy. In 1849 he was re-elected for six years, but in 1852 he was elected vice president, took the oath of office in Havana and died April 18, 1853. His service in the Senate, therefore, hardly amounted to 30 years, and at all events, Benton concluded his service before King. Besides those mentioned, W. B. Allison, of Iowa, will have completed 30 years of continuous service on March 4, the same day which witnesses the close of Mr. Jones' Senatorial career.

Mr. Jones was born in England in 1830, but came to this country when he was less than a year old. He grew up in Ohio, but went to California soon after the discovery of gold there. He has had various changes of fortune, having at one time worked with pick and shovel, though he is now understood to be quite wealthy. He has always ranked as a man of ability and is said to be very popular with his fellow members. His contributions to the literature of the currency question were regarded as very valuable by those who agreed with him, though in the long run he found himself on the losing side.

Though the father of the Senate, Senator Jones is considerably younger in years than several of his fellows. As stated, he was born in 1830. Mr. Pettus, of Alabama, who has just been re-elected, was born in 1821, and is the oldest man in the Senate. His colleague, Mr. Morgan, was born in 1824. Senators Hoar, of Massachusetts, and Hawley, of Connecticut, were born in 1826; Platt, of Connecticut, and Stewart, of Nevada, in 1827; Cullom, of Illinois, and Allison, of Iowa, in 1829. The last named Senator is equal to Jones in length of service, and one year older. There have doubtless been many others whose terms of service have approached 30 years, but these named are all who have completed that term.—Courier Journal.

Lively Old Men.

Five men who long ago passed the three-score-and-ten mark, have been distinguishing themselves in athletic pursuits recently. Four of them are citizens of the United States.

Of the five, the oldest is William H. Seymour, of Rockport, N. Y., who has just celebrated his 100th birthday by taking up automobile. He declares he is hale and hearty and good for 50 years more.

Close on his record follows that of Capt. John Erkenbrack, of Saratoga, whose latest feat has been to prepare for a 16-day tramp to New York City, and that at the age of 95.

M. Charles Cambon, of Chalamont, France, has just celebrated his 89th birthday by taking out a hunting license, his 72nd. This young old man is still one of the best hunters in all France.

As sprightly on skates as a youngster of 12, is Col. J. Harry Rogers, over whose silvered head 85 years have passed.

But of all these elderly boys Walter Wentworth, the 77-year-old contortionist of Bedford, Mass., is perhaps the most remarkable, for he has lived almost 37 years longer than any other contortionist known and is still as supple as a snake and can do a twist or a split with ease.—New York Sun.

Dislocated Her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, which he did. It quickly relieved her and enabled her to sleep, which she had not done for several days. The son was much pleased with the relief it gave his mother and he has since recommended it to many others. The plans for the festival hall of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition have been submitted, showing the dome will be the largest in the world, excelling in size those of St. Peter's Cathedral and the Pantheon at Rome.
